YOUR MONEY-MAKING MISSION

Why You're Here

To host a live Zoom seminar that fills with motivated buyers and sellers, answers their questions in real time, and sells them — live — on working with you. Then to record that seminar once and let it keep selling for months.

Your Goal Today

Leave with a complete plan to run ONE live seminar: the topic, the room-filling system, the live sell-and-close, and the archive-to-evergreen setup. Built to work in any market — Florida relocation is our running example.

Success Metric (Next 7 Days)

One seminar topic chosen · registration page + reminders live · at least 10 of the right people invited · ONE live Zoom seminar hosted (even a small one) · the recording published as a replay link. That is a live sales event AND an evergreen asset in one week.

THE THREE MODULES

You sell the room live first, then turn that one event into an asset that keeps working:

Module	What You Build	The Payoff
1. Run the Live Seminar	A live Zoom that teaches, takes Q&A, and sells in real time	You close motivated buyers/sellers live
2. Fill the Room	Lead sources + registration page + reminder sequence	The right people actually show up
3. Archive & Keep Selling	Recording + on-demand replay + AI follow-up	One event sells for months

The Edmund Rule This Session Lives By

"Never do what you can't outsource. Never outsource what can be automated." You show up live for the part only you can do — building trust and closing. Everything around it — filling the room, reminding, archiving, following up — gets automated.

MODULE 1 — RUN THE LIVE SEMINAR

The Trust-and-Close Engine

What this means for your bank account:

- You build trust with a room of motivated prospects at once — not one coffee at a time
- You answer the real objections live, in your voice, and close on the spot
- One hour can book a week's worth of buyer consults and listing appointments

WHY LIVE STILL WINS

Live is where trust gets built and deals get made. When a prospect can raise their hand and ask "what about my situation?" and get a real answer from a real expert, you separate yourself from every agent who only sends a market report. A live Zoom seminar is your best listing presentation — delivered to a whole room at once.

THE 5-PART LIVE SEMINAR STRUCTURE (45–60 MIN)

- Hook (0–3): the promise + why this room, why now
- Teach (3–25): 3 genuinely useful points that shift beliefs (e.g., the truth about buying/selling/relocating in this market)
- Live Q&A (25–45): take real questions — this is where you sell without selling
- The Offer (45–53): the clear next step — book a consult / valuation / relocation call
- Close + Book (53–60): hand out the calendar link and book people while they're hot

SELLING "MOVING TO FLORIDA" — IN ANY MARKET

Our running example is a relocation seminar for out-of-state buyers. The exact same structure sells a first-time buyer masterclass in Denver, a downsizing workshop in Phoenix, or a "what's my home worth" seller seminar anywhere. The topic changes; the trust-build-then-close engine does not.

Live-Selling Rule

You are not pitching for 45 minutes. You teach, you genuinely help in Q&A, and the offer becomes the obvious next step. The room sells itself when the value is real.

MODULE 1 — PROFIT-GENERATING PROMPTS

Paste into Claude or ChatGPT. Replace the brackets with your market and audience.

CHOOSE TOPIC & MARKET

Act as a real estate marketing strategist. My market: [city/region]. My ideal audience: [out-of-state buyers relocating / first-time buyers / sellers considering listing]. Give me 5 live seminar topics that (1) solve an urgent question this audience has now, (2) lead naturally to booking [a consult / valuation / relocation call], and (3) would make them register tonight. For each: title, core promise, and the #1 objection it overcomes.

BUILD THE LIVE SEMINAR OUTLINE

Build a 50-minute LIVE Zoom seminar outline for "[TOPIC]" aimed at [audience] in [market]. Structure: 3-min hook, three teaching points (each: point, proof, belief it shifts), a 20-min live Q&A plan, an 8-min offer for [my offer], and a booking close. It must teach real value, not pitch the whole time. Keep it usable in any market by keeping the method general and the examples swappable.

LIVE Q&A PREP — ANTICIPATE THE ROOM

List the 12 most likely questions [out-of-state buyers relocating to Florida / your audience] will ask in a live seminar, including the tough ones (cost, timing, taxes, "is now a good time"). For each, give me a confident, honest 2-3 sentence answer in a warm, no-pressure voice that resolves the concern and points toward booking [my offer]. These are my live Q&A notes.

THE LIVE OFFER & CLOSE

Write the offer + close section I deliver LIVE at the end of my seminar. My offer: [consult / home valuation / relocation strategy call]. Stack the value, name the transformation, give one clear next step (book on my calendar now), and handle the top 3 objections live. No fake scarcity – let the value earn the booking.

MODULE 1 — YOUR LIVE SEMINAR PLAN

My seminar topic + market:

My audience (who I want in the room):

My 3 teaching points:

My live offer (what they book at the end):

Top 3 questions I must nail live

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

The math that matters

People I want in the room: _____

Consults/appointments target: _____

Avg. commission per deal: $ _____

MODULE 2 — FILL THE ROOM

The Empty-Room Killer

A great seminar to an empty room sells nothing. Filling the room is two jobs: (1) get the right people to register, and (2) get registrants to actually show up. AI gives you the biggest, fastest win on both.

WHERE THE RIGHT PEOPLE COME FROM

You already have reach — use it. Your sphere and past clients, your social following, your community group, a simple paid boost to a local lookalike audience, and partner referrals (lenders, relocation companies, HR departments for relocating employees). Pick 2–3 sources, not all of them.

REGISTRATION + REMINDERS = ATTENDANCE

A simple registration page captures the lead; a 5-email reminder sequence is what actually gets them in the room. The reminder sequence is the single biggest lever on attendance — and AI writes the whole thing in minutes, in your voice.

PICK YOUR LEAD SOURCES

I'm hosting a live seminar on "[TOPIC]" for [audience] in [market]. List the 6 best places I can find and invite the RIGHT people, ranked by speed-to-fill. For each: who's there, a one-line invite message, and whether it's free reach or paid. Then tell me which 3 to focus on for a seminar 7 days out.

REGISTRATION PAGE COPY

Write a high-converting registration page for my LIVE Zoom seminar "[TOPIC]". Audience: [audience]. Include a headline, 3 "what you'll learn" bullets, a who-it's-for line, a short credibility bio, and a register CTA. Make clear it's a live session with live Q&A. Confident, direct, no hype.

THE 5-EMAIL REMINDER SEQUENCE

Write a 5-email reminder sequence for registrants of my live seminar "[TOPIC]". Email 1: instant confirmation + add-to-calendar + what to expect. Email 2: a valuable teaser. Email 3: cost of NOT solving [problem]. Email 4: day-of with the Zoom link. Email 5: "we're live in 1 hour." Each under 150 words, my voice, one clear link.

MODULE 2 — YOUR ROOM-FILLING MAP

My 3 lead sources for this seminar:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

My registration page headline:

My 5 reminder emails — one-line purpose each:

1. Confirmation + calendar: _____
2. Value tease: _____
3. Cost of inaction: _____
4. Day-of Zoom link: _____
5. Live in 1 hour: _____

MODULE 3 — ARCHIVE & KEEP SELLING

The One-and-Done Killer

Most agents host a seminar once and let the recording rot in a folder. You'll do the opposite: record the live session, publish it as an on-demand replay, and let an AI chat agent answer questions and book appointments from the replay — so one live event keeps selling for months.

FROM LIVE EVENT TO EVERGREEN ASSET

Hit record on Zoom. That single file becomes: a replay link you send to no-shows, an on-demand registration page for people who find you later, and a library entry that books appointments while you sleep. The live energy is captured once and works forever.

THE AI CHAT AGENT (FOR THE REPLAY)

On the replay, you're not there live — so an AI agent trained on your offer and your Q&A answers handles the questions and drops your calendar link at the peak of interest. This is where automation earns its keep: the part you can't be present for, the AI covers.

ONGOING ENGAGEMENT

The seminar is the start of the relationship, not the end. A short follow-up sequence to attendees and replay-watchers keeps you top of mind until they're ready to transact.

REPURPOSE THE RECORDING

I recorded a live seminar on "[TOPIC]". Give me a repurposing plan: an on-demand replay page headline + blurb, a no-show follow-up email with the replay link, 3 short social clips to cut (with timestamps to look for), and a 3-email nurture sequence for attendees who didn't book yet. My voice: confident, warm, direct.

TRAIN THE REPLAY CHAT AGENT

Write a system prompt for an AI chat agent embedded on my seminar replay page for "[TOPIC]". Role: answer viewer questions using my Q&A answers [paste], stay in my voice, never invent facts, and guide ready prospects to book at [calendar link]. If it can't answer, collect the email for human follow-up. Helpful first, never pushy.

MODULE 3 — ARCHIVE PLAN + CREDIBILITY RULES

My replay link will live at:

My no-show + nurture follow-up (who gets what):

⚠️ The One Risk That Kills These Seminars

Two ways to destroy trust: (1) dressing a recorded replay up as "happening live right now" with fake countdowns and "3 seats left" timers — people see through it and report it; (2) a "seminar" that's really a 45-minute pitch. Both torch your name and your brand.

The Credibility Rules (non-negotiable)

- Be honest about live vs. replay. Live is live; a replay is labeled on-demand.
- Teach real value. Give the room a genuine win even if they never hire you.
- Let the offer earn the close. Value first; booking is the natural next step.

ANY MARKET, ANY AUDIENCE — PLUG-AND-PLAY COMBOS

The same live-seminar engine sells in any market. Florida relocation is our worked example; swap the topic for yours.

Combo	Live Seminar Topic	The Live Offer
★ Relocation (our example)	"Moving to Florida: The Out-of-State Buyer's Live Playbook"	Book a relocation strategy call
Seller	"What's My Home Really Worth in This Market?" (live)	Book a listing appointment / valuation
Buyer	"First-Time & Move-Up Buyer Live Masterclass"	Book a buyer strategy consult
Entrepreneur	"[Your Signature Live Masterclass]"	Sell a service or course

How "any market" actually works

The method is portable because the engine never changes: pick an urgent topic → fill the room from 2-3 sources → teach 3 real points → take live Q&A → make one clear offer → record it → keep selling. A Denver agent runs the buyer masterclass; a Phoenix agent runs the downsizing workshop; you run the Florida relocation seminar. Same machine.

The combo I'm committing to today:

THE "LIVE SEMINAR IN A DAY" MASTER PROMPT

One prompt that generates your entire live seminar funnel from a single topic input. Paste it, fill the brackets, run it section by section.

★ COPY THIS ENTIRE PROMPT

You are my live seminar funnel builder. I'm a [role: e.g., real estate broker] in [market], serving [audience]. My offer is [consult / valuation / relocation call / service]. My topic is "[TOPIC]".

Generate my complete LIVE seminar funnel in six labeled sections:

- 1) LIVE SEMINAR OUTLINE – 50 min: 3-min hook, three teaching points (point, proof, belief shifted), a 20-min live Q&A plan, an 8-min offer, and a booking close. Teach real value; do not pitch the whole time.
- 2) LIVE Q&A PREP – the 12 most likely questions (including the hard ones) with confident, honest answers in my voice that point toward booking.
- 3) ROOM-FILLING PLAN – the 3 best lead sources for a seminar 7 days out, with a one-line invite for each.
- 4) REGISTRATION PAGE COPY – headline, 3 learn-bullets, who-it's-for, short bio, register CTA. Make clear it's live with live Q&A.
- 5) 5-EMAIL REMINDER SEQUENCE – confirmation+calendar, value tease, cost-of-inaction, day-of Zoom link, live-in-1-hour. Each under 150 words, my voice.
- 6) ARCHIVE & FOLLOW-UP – replay page blurb, no-show email, a 3-email nurture sequence, and a chat-agent brief for the replay.

Ask me 3 clarifying questions first if anything is missing. Then produce all six sections.

How to run it

Answer its 3 questions, then take each section into your tools: outline + Q&A into your live Zoom, room-filling + reg page + emails into your registration setup, archive section into your replay page after you record. One prompt, one afternoon, one machine.

YOUR 7-DAY BUILD PLAN

Measurable output: ONE live seminar hosted + its replay link published by Day 7.

Days 1-2 — Decide & Generate

- ☐ Choose ONE topic + market + offer
- ☐ Run the "Live Seminar in a Day" prompt
- ☐ Edit the outline + Q&A in your voice

Days 5-6 — Rehearse & Host

- ☐ Dry-run the seminar + Q&A answers
- ☐ Host the LIVE Zoom seminar (hit record!)
- ☐ Make the offer + book people live

Days 3-4 — Fill the Room

- ☐ Publish the registration page
- ☐ Load the 5 reminder emails
- ☐ Invite 10+ of the right people from 2-3 sources

Day 7 — Archive & Follow Up

- ☐ Publish the replay link
- ☐ Email no-shows the replay
- ☐ Start the attendee nurture sequence

My measurable Day-7 outputs

YOUR LIVE-AND-EVERGREEN MANIFESTO

"While my competitors give the same presentation one prospect at a time, I host one live seminar — fill the room, answer the real questions, and close motivated buyers and sellers on the spot. Then I record it once and let it sell for months. I show up live for the part only I can do, and I automate everything else."

My personal live-and-evergreen statement:

Keep Building With Edmund

We go deeper on systems like this inside Edmund's Mastermind. For done-with-you AI builds, that's Bogen.ai. And the full operating playbook lives in my book, Prompt to Close. Host it live, then let it sell forever.
